

NAS 212: 4 credits

MICHIGAN & WISCONSIN TRIBAL RELATIONS

with Dr. Martin Reinhardt asynchronous online

MEETS GEC: Social Responsibility
World Cultures

An examination of the twenty-three federally recognized tribes of Michigan and Wisconsin and how treaties with the federal government shaped their history and contemporary political make-up. Treaty rights, sovereignty, urban communities and tribal enterprises will also be explored.

Offered Fall 2023
NMU Center for Native American Studies
906.227.1397 | cnas@nmu.edu | nmu.edu/cnas

